ELECTIONS IN CANADA.

SOLDIERS:

The Issue that is being Raised in Canada.

This is the pledge being signed by Liberal Candidates in Quebec, at dictation of Bourassa and Lavergne, who are supporting Laurier:

> " I, the undersigned candidate in for the Federal Election, undertake by these presents, if I am elected, to demand the immediate suspension of the Military Service Act, 1917, and of all its effects until Canadian electors have pronounced by way of plebiscite, and should the majority of the electors condemn it that it be considered as null from its origin, and that in consequence all conscripts be disbanded.
> " I also undertake to vote against any Government which should refuse to adopt the above enunciated policy."

In " Le Devoir " Bourassa has declared his position as follows:

> " We do not ask for anything better than to help Sir Wilfrid Laurier overthrow this Government of national treason."

Sir Wilfrid Laurier has accepted Bourassa's aid and the alliance made between them in public.

" Le Canada," Sir Wilfrid Laurier's chief Montreal newspaper, declares:

> " If Borden is elected not only will the Conscription Law follow its course, but the second class will soon be called following the first. If Laurier is returned to power the Law will be at once suspended and the measure submitted to the people in the form of a referendum. We do not contest the right of the soldiers to vote, but it would have been wise to except the strangers. It appears in fact that a certain number of Englishmen from England left that country to get rid of Conscription, and coming out here enlisted in the Canadian Army, the pay being four times as much as in the English Army."

It is conceded by both parties that even if a referendum would carry it could not be submitted to electors before Autumn, and no reinforcements could be sent forward from Canada before next November. The Prime Minister stated in Toronto yesterday that Election returns would not be completed before the end of February; Parliament could not meet before April; the Referendum could not be taken before Autumn; meanwhile enlistment and reinforcements would cease. Every English newspaper in Canada, Liberal and Conservative, except four, are supporting the Union Government; every provincial Premier except Sir Lomer Gouin, of Quebec, is supporting the Union Government.

Most of the French Liberal Candidates are promising Canada's withdrawal from the War if Laurier wins.

All Union Government meetings in Quebec so far have been broken up by French Canadian mobs; only thirty-seven straight Laurier Canadians have been nominated in the eighty-two Ontario Constituencies.

Armand Lavergne, Nationalist Leader and Laurier Candidate, in present contest has made following appeal to Quebec Electors on behalf of Laurier:

> " Having been a Nationalist and remaining a Nationalist, I ask you to rally around Sir Wilfrid Laurier, who alone can save us in this great crisis."

Lieut.-Col. Mackenzie Forbes, President Great War Veterans' Association, and Sergeant-Major Beveridge, both returned soldiers, were refused a hearing by a French Canadian mob in Montreal last night when they attempted to speak in favour of sending reinforcements to Army overseas.

Quebec Military Service Tribunals have practically exempted all men liable for immediate service. The Government has announced it will appeal against all exemptions, as the Government has a final appeal to Judge Duff of the Supreme Court of Canada.

In February last the Canadian Club and Citizens' Service League of Hamilton wrote Sir Wilfrid Laurier asking him for a written endorsement of their efforts to arouse new interest and activity in voluntary recruiting, and stating that his endorsement would be of greatest value. Sir Wilfrid replied:

> " I am sorry that I cannot send you at once an affirmative answer. I will look into the matter, but will keep it under advisement."

No other reply was ever sent by Sir Wilfrid.

> " We intend to see that the Military Service Act is enforced in every community, every district, every province, fairly, impartially, and firmly," declared Sir Robert Borden in Toronto last night on control of food.
