The following is an extract from the Recruiting Regulations, 1912 :—

"Any man, whether soldier or civilian, who brings a recruit to a recruiter, or to a military barrack, is, "ipso facto, a recruiting agent, and it is not necessary that he should have been formally appointed as such."

The effect of this Regulation is that any soldier who brings a recruit under the above regulations is entitled to a reward if the recruit is passed into the service.

A Soldier on pass who requires medical aid must apply for it, personally if possible, to the nearest military hospital. If, however, he resides more than two miles from a military hospital, he may apply to a civilian doctor, to whom he will show this pass, and the doctor will then be allowed the following rates for medical attendance on the soldier at the latter's residence.

VISIT AND MEDICINE.

	Under one mile.		Over one but under two miles.		Over two but under three miles.		Over three but under four miles.		Over four but under five miles.		Greater distances.
	s.	d.	s.	d.	s.	d.	s.	d.	s.	d.
Day	2	6	3	0	4	0	5	0	6	0	An addition of 1s. for each mile over five.
Night 10 p.m. to 7 a.m.	3	6	4	6	6	6	8	6	10	6	An addition of 2s. for each mile over five.

The soldier will at once report the employment of the civilian doctor by a letter addressed to his Commanding Officer, to whom the civilian doctor will submit his claim on Army Form O. 1667 for payment.

When a soldier on pass is prevented by sickness, which must be properly certified, or by other unavoidable causes, from rejoining his Corps by the date on which his pass expires, he is to report himself before that date—

To the nearest General or other Officer on the staff of the Army ; or to the Commanding Officer of any unit or detachment of the Regular Army ; or (if none of these be within convenient distance), to a Justice of the Peace.

Before proceeding on pass a soldier is to leave his address with the captain of his company, and he must at all times be prepared to rejoin on the shortest notice, if ordered to do so.

Soldiers passing through London can obtain board and lodging at moderate rates at the Union Jack Club, opposite Waterloo Station.

Back at 9.30 P.M. Sunday. Ord. Sgt.

If a General Mobilization is ordered every soldier on pass must return immediately to his unit without waiting for instructions.
