Library and Archives Canada (LAC) will provide paper and digital reproductions of material from its collection as long as the reproductions are used for research or private study purposes. Users can obtain reproductions of documents that are not subject to preservation restrictions (<http://www.collectionscanada.gc.ca/the-public/005-6060-e.html>), donor restrictions (<http://www.collectionscanada.gc.ca/the-public/005-6020-e.html>) or privacy restrictions (<http://www.collectionscanada.gc.ca/the-public/005-6010-e.html>).

Should the user wish to use the reproductions for a purpose other than research or private study, permission from the copyright owner may be required. It is the user's responsibility to determine whether or not the material is protected by copyright, and if the use of the material constitutes an infringement of copyright under the Canadian Copyright Act (<http://laws.justice.gc.ca/en/c-42/text.html>). If it does, written permission from the copyright owner(s) must be obtained. When LAC is not the copyright owner, we will provide the name of the copyright owner(s) if it is readily available.

Reproductions are provided for one-time use only. It is strictly prohibited to reproduce, resell or lend the reproduction, or to deposit it with another individual or repository. Any modification, translation or reformatting that alters the meaning or context of the material or compromises its authenticity is also strictly prohibited.

Citation

To ensure proper citation and facilitate retrieval of material, the source of the material and its reference number must always accompany the reproductions. For more information, see How to Cite Archival Sources (<http://www.collectionscanada.gc.ca/the-public/005-6070-e.html>).

Dispositions régissant la reproduction et l'utilisation des documents de la collection de Bibliothèque et Archives Canada

Reproduction et utilisation

Bibliothèque et Archives Canada (BAC) fournit des reproductions sur papier et des reproductions numériques de documents provenant de sa collection, à condition toutefois que ces reproductions ne soient utilisées qu'à des fins de recherche et d'études privées. Les usagers peuvent obtenir des reproductions de documents qui ne font pas l'objet de restrictions concernant la préservation (<http://www.collectionscanada.gc.ca/le-public/005-6060-f.html>), les restrictions du donateur (<http://www.collectionscanada.gc.ca/le-public/005-6020-f.html>) ou la protection des renseignements personnels (<http://www.collectionscanada.gc.ca/le-public/005-6010-f.html>).

Si l'utilisateur a l'intention d'utiliser les reproductions à des fins autres que la recherche et les études privées, il se peut qu'il doive obtenir la permission du titulaire des droits d'auteur du document. C'est la personne qui demande la reproduction qui est responsable de déterminer si le document est protégé par le droit d'auteur et si l'utilisation du document enfreint la Loi canadienne sur le droit d'auteur (<http://lois.justice.gc.ca/fr/c-42/texte.html>). Le cas échéant, le demandeur doit obtenir la permission écrite du titulaire des droits d'auteur. Lorsque BAC n'est pas le titulaire des droits d'auteur, nous vous donnerons le nom du titulaire des droits d'auteur, s'il est connu.

Citation

Pour assurer l'exactitude de la citation et faciliter le repérage d'un document, la source du document et son numéro de référence doivent toujours accompagner les reproductions. 1. Duplicate attestation.
(On third page the date and cause of discharge will be entered and signed by the competent military authority).
2. Medical history sheet (if any).
(Army Form B. 178).

Instructions as to the preparation, dispatch,
and custody, of discharge documents.

1. When a soldier is to be discharged, the documents retained with the duplicate attestation will be placed inside this form. Should any of the documents be missing, an explanation of the deficiency, signed by the commanding officer, must be substituted for the missing document. The officer in charge of records will then extract from the original attestation, any documents required to complete the list of discharge documents enumerated in the margin, which will then be placed in this form in the sequence given.

2. When men are discharged from the colours at home as medically unfit, or with claims to pension, Army Form B. 268 will be sent confirmed, together with the duplicate attestation and documents retained therein to the officer in charge of records 10 days in advance of the date for discharge in the case of invalids, and 14 days in other cases. This officer will then extract from the original attestation any documents required to complete the list of discharge documents enumerated in the margin, place them in this form, and after carefully checking the duplicate attestation with the original forward the whole to the Secretary, Royal Hospital, Chelsea. When such men are discharged abroad, the same procedure will be adopted as above, with the exception that the discharge documents will be sent to the officer in charge of records immediately after discharge takes place (except in the case of men who are granted gratuities on discharge from local battalions or companies, Royal Artillery).

3. When soldiers are sent home from abroad for discharge, the documents retained with the duplicate attestation will be placed inside this form and sent home with the men for transmission to the officer who carries out the discharge, together with the following additional forms :—

- (a) Discharge certificate (Army Form B. 2079 or Army Form B. 264).
- (b) Character Certificate (Army Form B. 2067) if entitled.
- (c) Copy company conduct sheet (Army Form B. 121) when required under King's Regulations.

The duplicate attestation and documents retained therein will be sent to the officer in charge of records, who will extract from the original attestation any documents required to complete the list of discharge documents enumerated in the margin and place them in this form.

4. The discharge documents of re-enlisted pensioners, on re-discharge, will be sent to the officer in charge of records, who will extract from the original attestation any documents required to complete the list of discharge documents enumerated in the margin, place them inside this form, and forward the whole to the Secretary, Royal Hospital, Chelsea, irrespective of the cause of discharge.

5. The original and duplicate attestations of recruits who are rejected before, or on, final approval will be retained by the approving officer for one year, when they will be destroyed.

6. In all other cases the discharge documents will be sent, directly the discharge is carried out, to the officer in charge of records of the unit concerned.

7. Postage need not be paid, and receipts are not required, in the case of documents sent to Chelsea or to the War Office,

8. When the discharge documents of men not entitled to pension are sent to the officer who will have final charge of them, they are to be accompanied by Army Form B. 279, and that officer will, if they are found to be correct, sign and return Army Form B. 279. Should any document be missing, he must at once apply for it.

9. The officers having final charge of the discharge documents will arrange them according to regimental numbers, and enter the names in the alphabetical index, Army Book No. 129.

W. Wallace Capt. Col.

Officer in medical charge of case.

I have satisfied myself of the general accuracy of this report, and concur therewith, except that I would recommend that he be invalided to Canada

Station Ed. Hastings

M. M. Quinn Capt

Officer in charge of Hospital.

Date Jan 11, 1917

* Loss of teeth on, or immediately after, active service, should be attributed thereto, unless there is evidence that it is due to some other cause.

† Delete this word if no exceptions are to be made.

Opinion of the Medical Board.

NOTES.—(i.) Clear and decisive answers to the following questions are to be carefully filled in by the Board, as it is essential that the Members of the Pensions and Claims Board should be in possession of the most reliable information to enable them to decide upon the man's claim to pension.

(ii.) Expressions such as "may," "might," "probably," &c., should be avoided.

(iii.) The rates of pensions vary according to whether the disability is attributed to wounds or injuries received or illness contracted (1) in the presence of the enemy, (2) on active service. It is therefore essential when assigning the cause of the disability to differentiate between them (see Articles 641 to 648 of the Canadian Pay and Allowance Regulations).

(iv.) In answering question 20 the Board should be careful to discriminate between disease resulting from military conditions and disease to which the soldier would have been equally liable in civil life.

20. (a) State whether the disability is the result of injuries received or illness contracted, (1) in the presence of the enemy, (2) on active service.

1. yes. 2. yes.

(b) If due to one of these causes, to what specific condition do the Board attribute it?

Fall in trench

21. Has the disability been caused or aggravated by

(a) Intemperance? no

(b) Misconduct? no

(c) Negligence? no

22. Is the disability permanent? impossible to say.

23. If not permanent, what is its probable minimum duration? not applicable

To be stated in months.

24. To what extent is his capacity for earning a full livelihood in the general labour market lessened at present? Less than 1/4 Total disability all of this due to service

In defining the extent of his inability to earn a livelihood, estimate it at 1/4, 1/2, 3/4, or total incapacity. Should considerably decrease in 6 months.

25. If an operation was advised and declined, was the refusal unreasonable? not applicable.

26. Do the Board recommend

(a) Fit for duty? no

(b) Fit for base duty? yes 1111

(c) Invalided to Canada? no

(d) Discharge as permanently unfit no.

11. Present condition. (Most Important.)

(To include full description of present disabling condition or conditions, and of the immediate and direct cause of incapacity, i.e., debility, breathlessness on exertion, necessity of treatment by rest, etc.)

Patient still complains of weakness of the right knee, and pain from time to time. Patient walks with a stick. The front of the knee is somewhat full, and there is excess of synovial fluid so that the patella floats. There is slight thickening of the tissues on either side of the patellar ligament, particularly on the outer side. The rt. knee is 1/3 inch larger than the left in circumference. The knee is not tender. The condition has not altered since patient came here in April, in spite of treatment. The knee was first put up in Scott's dressing and since has been massaged. Other systems normal. General health Good.

12. (a) Is the disability the result of service or climate? Service
- (b) Has it been aggravated by intemperance, vice or misconduct? No.

13. (a) For purpose of Identification. (Here a full description of wounds, scars, deformities, etc., is to be given.)

Superficial scar on front of left shin (old). Linear scar over left hypothenar eminence (old)

(b) In case of wounds, or other injuries, state whether sustained on or off duty. If not received in action, was a Court of Inquiry held?

On duty

(c) In the event of the disability being attributed to exposure on duty, state clearly the nature of such exposure, and whether it was exceptional or otherwise.

Patient was on night work in the trenches when he slipped and twisted his rt. knee. Not exceptional.
