2.—If you are sent to hospital in the United Kingdom, send a postcard, as soon as possible, to the Canadian Record Office, 7, Millbank, London, S.W., giving Regimental No., Rank, Name and Unit, and name of hospital, with date of admission, and also report your transfer to any other hospital in England.

3.—If sent back from the front, you are taken on the strength of a Reserve Unit from the date of your admission to hospital in England.

4.—If you are taken prisoner be sure to send a letter or postcard to Canadian Record Office, giving your address, and any other particulars which are allowed to be written. This is much better than writing elsewhere, as the Record Office immediately cables the information to Canada, and informs your next of kin, so that they will have immediate notification of your whereabouts. A prisoner is allowed to write one postcard a week and one letter every fortnight, and the Pay and Record Office, if advised, can make arrangements to send comforts to prisoners, through the Canadian Red Cross Society.

5.—If you are taken prisoner and wish to assign a small portion of your pay, say 10s. a month to the Canadian Red Cross Society, for the purpose of purchasing comforts, write to the Chief Paymaster, Westminster House, 7, Millbank, London, and necessary action will be taken.

6.—If you are sent to hospital in England from the front, your Pay Book will be taken from you and sent to the Chief Paymaster, as you are not allowed to receive money while in hospital, but on return to your Reserve Unit you can obtain an advance of pay from the Regimental Paymaster before proceeding on furlough. While in hospital a man is not allowed to have money or valuables in his possession. Stamps, writing materials, etc, will be obtained on application to the Medical Officer on form AB. 38, which on completion will be sent to the Chief Paymaster. This does not affect Military Convalescent Hospitals.

7.—If you belong to a Reserve Battalion or Unit stationed in England, you will always apply to the Regimental Paymaster for pay, not to the Chief Paymaster.

8.—Be careful not to lose your Pay Book; it should always be kept in the inside pocket of your jacket, don't leave it in a Kit Bag, etc.

9. It must be thoroughly understood that if you have an assignment of pay, an amount equal to one month's payment is kept back from your pay as a Credit in your Pay List to prevent loss.

10. On transfer to another Unit, your Pay Book is required to be forwarded by the Regimental Paymaster to the Chief Paymaster's Office for verification.

11. Always state your Regimental No., Rank, Name, and Unit when writing. Hundreds of letters addressed to men in the Contingent are delayed in delivery to them, owing to insufficient address not showing the unit to which the man belongs.

12. To avoid trouble and expense to relatives be sure to have your will sent to the Chief Paymaster, Westminster House, 7, Millbank, London, or if your will is in Canada or elsewhere, notify the Chief Paymaster where it has been lodged. The mention of the next of kin on your attestation paper is not a will, and it is most important that a proper will should be made out.

Information for the Canadian Soldier

The Canadian Pay and Record Office, Westminster House, 7 Millbank, London, S.W., is a central information Bureau which links up the Officers and men of the Canadian Contingents with their relations in all parts of the world ; consequently, to enable that Office to be in a position at all times to furnish the latest information to relatives and friends, it is essential that the Unit in the Field should send accurate information to the D.A.G.'s Office at the Base (D.A.A.G., Canadian section) concerning any casualties affecting the Officers and men immediately they occur. Each individual Officer and man can assist the work of the Canadian Pay and Record Office if he carries out the following instructions:—

1.—If the address of the next of kin, i.e., wife, father, mother, etc., as shewn on the attestation paper is changed he should immediately notify the change to the Adjutant and also correct the entry on page 5 of his Pay Book. The Adjutant will then notify the Record Office, London, of the change.

2.—If you are sent to hospital in the United Kingdom, send a postcard, as soon as possible, to the Canadian Record Office, 7 Millbank, London, S.W., giving Regi-

3.—If sent back from the front, you are taken on the strength of a Reserve Unit from the date of your admission to hospital in England.

4.—If you are taken prisoner be sure to send a letter or postcard to Canadian Record Office, giving your address, and any other particulars which are allowed to be written. This is much better than writing elsewhere, as the Record Office immediately cables the information to Canada, and informs your next of kin, so that they will have immediate notification of your whereabouts. A prisoner is allowed to write one postcard a week and one letter every fortnight, and the Pay and Record Office, if advised, can make arrangements to send comforts to prisoners, through the Canadian Red Cross Society.

5.—If you are taken prisoner and wish to assign a small portion of your pay, say 10s. a month to the Canadian Red Cross Society, for the purpose of purchasing comforts, write to the Chief Paymaster, Westminster House, 7 Millbank, London, and necessary action will be taken.

6.—If you are sent to hospital in England from the front, your Pay Book will be taken from you and sent to the Chief Paymaster, as you are not allowed to receive money while in hospital, but on return to your Reserve

Unit you can obtain an advance of pay from the Regimental Paymaster before proceeding on furlough. While in hospital a man is not allowed to have money or valuables in his possession. Stamps, writing materials, etc., will be obtained on application to the Medical Officer on form AB. 38, which on completion will be sent to the Chief Paymaster. This does not affect Military Convalescent Hospitals.

7.—If you belong to a Reserve Battalion or Unit stationed in England, you will always apply to the Regimental Paymaster for pay, not to the Chief Paymaster.

8.—Be careful not to lose your Pay Book; it should always be kept in the inside pocket of your jacket, don't leave it in a Kit Bag, etc.

9.—It must be thoroughly understood that if you have an assignment of pay, an amount equal to one month's payment is kept back from your pay as a Credit in your Pay List to prevent loss.

10.—On transfer to another Unit, your Pay Book is required to be forwarded by the Regimental Paymaster to the Chief Paymaster's Office for verification.

11.—Always state your Regimental No., Rank, Name, and Unit when writing. Hundreds of letters addressed to men in the Contingent are delayed in delivery to them, owing to insufficient address not showing the unit to which the man belongs.

12.—To avoid trouble and expense to relatives, be sure to have your will sent to the Chief Paymaster, Westminster House, 7 Millbank, London, or if your will is in Canada or elsewhere, notify the Chief Paymaster where it has been lodged. The mention of the next of kin on your attestation paper is not a will, and it is most important that a proper will should be made out.

SPECIMEN FORM OF MILITARY WILL

FOR PERSONAL ESTATE ONLY

If a soldier on active service, or under orders for active service, wishes to make a short will, he may do so on the page at end of this book. It must be entirely in his own handwriting, and must be signed by him and dated. The full names and addresses of the persons whom he desires to benefit, and the sum of money or the articles or property which he desires to leave to them, must be clearly stated. The mere entry of the name of an intended legatee on page 20 without any mention of what the legatee is to receive is of no legal value.

The following is a specimen of a will leaving all to one person :—

In the event of my death I give the whole of my property and effects to my mother, Mrs. Mary Atkins, 999 High Street, Aldershot.

(Signature) THOMAS ATKINS,

KEEP YOUR MOUTH SHUT!

The success of any operation we carry out depends chiefly on surprise.

DO NOT TALK.—When you know that your Unit is making preparations for an attack, don't talk about them to men in other Units or to strangers, and keep your mouth shut, especially in public places.

Do not be inquisitive about what other Units are doing; if you hear or see anything, keep it to yourself.

If you hear anyone else talking about operations, stop him at once.

The success of the operations and the lives of your comrades depend upon your SILENCE.

If you ever should have the misfortune to be taken prisoner, don't give the enemy any information beyond your rank and name. In answer to all other questions you need only say, "I cannot answer."

He cannot compel you to give any other information. He may use threats. He will respect you if your courage, patriotism, and self-control do not fail. Every word you say may cause the death of one of your comrades.

Either after or before you are openly examined, Germans, disguised as British Officers or men, will be sent among you or will await you in the cages or quarters or hospital to which you are taken.

Germans will be placed where they can overhear what you say without being seen by you.

DO NOT BE TAKEN IN BY ANY OF THESE TRICKS.
