Information for the Canadian Soldier.

The Canadian Pay and Record Office, Westminster, Millbank, London, S.W., is a central communication Bureau which links up the Canadian Pay and Record Office of the Canadian Contingents with their relatives in all parts of the world; consequently to enable that Office to be in a position at all times to furnish the latest information to relatives and friends, it is essential that the Unit in the Field should send accurate information to the D. A. G.'s Office at the Base (D. A. A. G., Canadian section) concerning any casualties affecting the Officers and men immediately they occur. Each individual Officer and man can assist the work of the Canadian Pay and Record Office if he carries out the following instructions:—

- 1.—If the address of his next of kin, i.e., wife, father, mother, etc., as shewn on the attestation paper is changed, he should immediately notify the change to the Adjutant and also correct the entry on page 5 of his Pay Book. The Adjutant will then notify the Record Office, London, of the change.

2.—If you are sent to hospital in the Kingdom, send a postcard, as soon as possible, to the Canadian Record Office, 7, Millbank, London, giving Regimental No., Rank, Name, and name of hospital, with date of admission. Report your transfer to your commanding officer.

3.—If sent back from the front, the strength of a Reserve Unit from admission to hospital in England.

4.—If you are taken prisoner be sure to send a letter or postcard to Canadian Record Office, giving your address, and any other particulars which are allowed to be written. This is much better than writing elsewhere, as the Record Office immediately cables the information to Canada, and informs your next of kin, so that they will have immediate notification of your whereabouts. A prisoner is allowed to write one postcard a week and one letter every fortnight, and the Pay and Record Office, if advised, can make arrangements to send comforts to prisoners, through the Canadian Red Cross Society.

sent to hospital in England from their relatives. A Reserve Book will be taken from you and to enable your name paymaster, as you are not allowed to receive money while in hospital, but on return to your Reserve Unit you can obtain an advance of pay from the Regimental Paymaster before proceeding on furlough. While in hospital a man is not allowed to have money or valuables in his possession. Stamps, writing materials, etc, will be obtained on application to the Medical Officer on form AB. 38, which on completion will be sent to the Chief Paymaster. This does not affect Military Convalescent Hospitals.

7.—If you belong to a Reserve Battalion or Unit stationed in England, you will always apply to the Regimental Paymaster for pay, not to the Chief Paymaster.

8.—Be careful not to lose it; it should always be kept in a tin or jacket, don't leave it in a Kit Bag.

9. It must be thoroughly read and have an assignment of each month's payment is made in your Credit in your Pay List to proper authorities.

10. On transfer to another unit is required to be forwarded by the master to the Chief Paymaster's Office.

11. Always state your Regime No., Rank, Name, and Unit when writing. Hundreds of letters addressed to men in the Contingent are delayed in delivery to them, owing to insufficient address not showing the unit to which the man belongs.

12. To avoid trouble and expense to relatives be sure to have your will sent to the Chief Paymaster, Westminster House, 7, Millbank, London, or if your will is in Canada or elsewhere, notify the Chief Paymaster where it has been lodged. The mention of the next of kin on your attestation paper is not a will, and it is most important that a proper will should be made out.
