On demobilization the particulars called for on the back of this certificate will not be completed

after the accident. I do not think there were any others bombs in the trench. The platoon we relieved there had taken part in a raid the night previous to relief and had been issued with phosphorous bombs. One of these might have been left lying in the trench.

W. Chandler Sergt.

J. Duncan, Lieut.

799067 L/Cpl. JONES, J.W. states —

"At time of accident I was walking along the trench — talking to Lt. BOUGHS who was walking along the parapet. The bomb suddenly exploded in the bay ahead of me, most of the phosphorous falling on Sergt. BOUGHS. I did not see or hear the bomb thrown. I had not seen any phosphorous bombs in this part of the trench although I had passed along there frequently. The accident happened about 6 P.M. May 9th.

J. Duncan Lieut

J.W. Jones L/Cpl.

Statements re injury to 1H1624 Sgt. C. BOUGHS.

13535 Sgt. CHANDLER, W. states - "I was about 15 yards from Sgt. BOUGHS at the time of the accident. He was walking along parapet of trench in PURPLE LINE about 6 P.M. May 9, 1918 when a phosphorous bomb exploded in trench beside him. The phosphorous fell on his clothes, chiefly on the back of his coat and in trying to brush it off he got it on his hands. I rushed to him with some of the men and we smothered the flames with a great coat. I did not see the bomb thrown. There were some men about 75 yards away on the top and some men in a T.M. emplacement about 3 bays away. None of these men knew anything about the throwing of the ~~bomb~~ bomb. Sgt. BOUGHS and I are in No 6 Platoon and this occured in our own front. We had only two smoke bombs in our trench stores and these were found intact at time.

Lieut. A. J. DUNCAN states —

"I was in charge of No 6 Platoon of which Sgt. BOUGHS was platoon sergeant. He reported the accident to me about 1 P.M. May 9th after his hands had been dressed. He could give no explanation whatever as to where the bomb came from or why it exploded. I examined a number of my men and some of the T.M. men but could obtain no information from them. No one knew of the existence of the bomb until they saw the explosion.

I had found two phosphorous bombs in a box among the trench stores, but I did not know of any others in the trench. The trench at this point was not occupied by my men as we were manning saps in advance. The two smoke bombs were found intact in the stores after the accident.

I took the evidence of Sgt. CHANDLER and L/Cpl. JONES as set out above."

INSTRUCTIONS.

1. These forms are to be completed in all cases of accidental or self-inflicted injuries, involving a soldier's absence from duty, whether due to the man's own act, or that of a comrade, or to other extraneous circumstances.

2. Where several casualties occur as the result of one accident, one form is to be completed for each Officer or other rank injured, but only one set of statements from the witnesses of the accident need be attached.

3. Full statements are to be taken by an Officer from the witnesses of the accident. These statements will be signed by the witnesses making them, and by the Officer who takes them, and will be forwarded with this Form. Where it is intended to take disciplinary action, copies of these statements should be retained by the Unit for use in lieu of a summary of evidence.

4. Where it is possible to obtain it, a statement from the injured man will also be forwarded. This, however, should not be used as evidence against him in any subsequent disciplinary proceedings.

Special Instructions as to Evidence in Cases of Self-Inflicted Wounds.

5. In these cases the statements mentioned in paragraphs 2 and 3 above should bring out all material points, e.g., statements to the effect that the witness was with the accused standing on the fire step (or sitting in a dug-out); that the accused was cleaning his rifle; position of safety catch, magazine, etc., if known; muzzle of rifle on toe of foot; hand on muzzle; that accused pulled trigger; that the rifle was afterwards examined and an empty cartridge case was found in chamber; that accused was seen to be wounded; what accused said ("I have shot myself," "I did not know it was loaded," etc.).

6. A soldier is specially trained in the safe use of his rifle and revolver, and evidence of any neglect of the ordinary precautions as to their handling in such cases usually has considerable bearing on the question of negligence. In cases of wilful self-wounding the fullest possible evidence should be obtained; unless the evidence is conclusive this charge should not be used. The charge will therefore usually be laid under sec. 40 Army Act—"Conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline in wounding himself through negligently handling a rifle," and an alternative charge to this effect should be made, even if the accused is to be tried under section 18 for wilful maiming.

Special Instructions as to Evidence in Cases of Self-Inflicted Wounds.

5. In these cases the statements mentioned in paragraphs 2 and 3 above should bring out all material points, e.g., statements to the effect that the witness was with the accused standing on the fire step (or sitting in a dug-out); that the accused was cleaning his rifle; position of safety catch, magazine, etc., if known; muzzle of rifle on toe of foot; hand on muzzle; that accused pulled trigger; that the rifle was afterwards examined and an empty cartridge case was found in chamber; that accused was seen to be wounded; what accused said ("I have shot myself," "I did not know it was loaded," etc.).

6. A soldier is specially trained in the safe use of his rifle and revolver, and evidence of any neglect of the ordinary precautions as to their handling in such cases usually has considerable bearing on the question of negligence. In cases of wilful self-wounding the fullest possible evidence should be obtained; unless the evidence is conclusive this charge should not be used. The charge will therefore usually be laid under Sec. 40 Army Act—"Conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline in wounding himself through negligently handling a rifle," and an alternative charge to this effect should be made, even if the accused is to be tried under Section 18 for wilful maiming.
