INSTRUCTIONS.

1. These Forms are to be completed in all cases of accidental or self-inflicted injuries, involving a soldier's absence from duty, whether due to the man's own act, or that of a comrade, or to other extraneous circumstances.

2. Where several casualties occur as the result of one accident, one Form is to be completed for each Officer or other rank injured, but only one set of statements from the witnesses of the accident need be attached.

3. Full statements are to be taken by an Officer from the witnesses of the accident. These statements will be signed by the witnesses making them, and by the Officer who takes them, and will be forwarded with this Form. Where it is intended to take disciplinary action, copies of these statements should be retained by the Unit for use in lieu of a summary of evidence.

4. Where it is possible to obtain it, a statement from the injured man will also be forwarded. This, however, should not be used as evidence against him in any subsequent disciplinary proceedings.

Special Instructions as to Evidence in Cases of Self-inflicted Wounds.

5. In these cases the statements mentioned in paragraphs 2 and 3 above should bring out all material points, e.g., statements to the effect that the witness was with the accused standing on the fire step (or sitting in a dug-out); that the accused was cleaning his rifle; position of safety catch, magazine, etc., if known; muzzle of rifle on toe of foot; hand on muzzle; that accused pulled trigger; that the rifle was afterwards examined and an empty cartridge case was found in chamber; that accused was seen to be wounded; what accused said ("I have shot myself," "I did not know it was loaded," etc.).

6. A soldier is specially trained in the safe use of his rifle and revolver, and evidence of any neglect of the ordinary precautions as to their handling in such cases usually has considerable bearing on the question of negligence. In cases of wilful self-wounding the fullest possible evidence should be obtained; unless the evidence is conclusive, this charge should not be used. The charge will therefore usually be laid under Sec. 40 Army Act—"Conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline in wounding himself through negligently handling a rifle," and an alternative charge to this effect should be made, even if the accused is to be tried under Section 18 for wilful maiming.

was attending to him. He expressed the opinion that there was not much hope of his living. Shortly after he reported to me that he had applied all the tests for death and that he was sure the Sergeant was dead.

When a stretcher arrived Sergt. BERNTHAL was taken to the M.O's Office. He mentioned something about trouble with a safety pin and an instantaneous fuze which I did not hear distinctly.

Questioning the men afterwards No.788917 Pte. J. ENO said he was looking over the parapet when the accident happened. Sergeant CONLEY had thrown one bomb. The Bombing Officer was on his right and the Bombing Sergeant on his left. He drew the pin and threw the bomb in the usual manner. The bomb exploded just as it left his hand, or just as it was level with the top of the sand-bags forming the bay. Sergt. CONLEY fell where he was standing. Sergt. BERNTHAL staggered back to where I found him and Lieut. STOTT ran a few paces to the right, holding his wrist.

I saw Sergt. BERNTHAL carried off and left a man to watch Sergeant CONLEY'S body before I left to report to my Company Commander.

Statement of Lieut. J. O. ADAMS,
38th Canadian Infantry Battalion.

- - - - - - - - - - - - - - - - -

At 9.30 a.m. on 14-2-18 I handed over "B" Company to Lieut. STOTT, Bombing Officer of this Battalion, on the bombing area of St. Lawrence Camp. He divided the Company into four squads of an average of seven men and a N.C.O. each. Three of these details were left with the Company Officers to practice dummy throwing while the fourth went forward with Lieut. STOTT and his N.C.O. to the throwing bay where live bombs were thrown under his direction. Two stretcher bearers also went forward.

Each detail was taken to the bay in turn. At the bay the men who were not throwing were sent behind a parapet of sand-bags about ten paces behind the bay and were brought forward one by one into the bay to throw the bombs under the supervision and instruction of the Bombing Officer or Sergeant, or both.

All the men of the last detail had thrown but No. 410253 Sergt. I.M. CONLEY. From where I was standing (about 150 yards back) I observed a bomb burst in the air. There were calls for a stretcher bearer, whom I immediately sent for. I then doubled forward and saw Lieut. STOTT, supported by two men, having apparently been wounded. As he could walk I ordered the men to lead him back to the M.O.

Sergeant BERNTHAL was lying near the protective parapet with a stretcher bearer dressing his wounds in his right side and right leg. Sergt. CONLEY was lying in the bay bleeding profusely from wounds in his head and neck. Stretcher Bearer H . P. McGONIGAL
