The court on hearing the evidence, find that 297530, Pte. Cosgrove, J.A. while on Active Service, received his injuries as the result of an accidental fall from his bicycle, owing to its front wheel striking a projecting rock in the road-bed while coming down a hill on the Archiestown road rendered slippery from frost and ice.

The court finds no evidence of foul ~~play~~play.

by order of Major G.D.Blackadar, O.C., 106 Coy., C.F.C.,

for the purpose of Inquiring into and reporting upon an accident to 297530, Pte. Cosgrove, J.A. while cycling on Archiestown road on the evening of November 22nd.

PRESIDENT.

Capt. T. J. McMullin, 106 Coy., C.F,C.,

MEMBERS.

Lieut. W. G. Smith, 106 Coy., C.F.C.,

Lieut. E. F. Violette, 106 Coy., C.F.C.,

IN ATTENDANCE.

The Court having assembled pursuant to order, proceed to examine the witnesses, and report as follows:-

2188593, A/Cpl. Deane, R.S. states as follows:-

On Friday evening the 22nd of November in company with Pte Cosgrove, I cycled from the camp at Knockando to Archiestown, leaving camp shortly before eight o'clock and arriving at Archiestown about 8.30 P.M. We visited the hotel there and drank a couple of drinks of brandy, leaving there very shortly after nine o'clock. While in the hotel I saw no one except the proprietress and the bar-maid.

After leaving the hotel we saw that our bicycle lights were in order and at once started on our way to the camp. Pte. Cosgrove appeared to me to have perfect control over himself, and not at all under the influence of liquor.

I cycled in front of Cosgrove and after having gone approximately a mile, reasonably slowly all the way, I heard a noise behind, which, at the moment, caused me to think that something had gone wrong with his bicycle, but no sound of a fall reached me. I at once called to him, asking if he was coming all right, but got no reply. Thinking that an accident might have occurred, I stopped, got off my wheel, and walked back as quickly as I could for a distance of, I should judge, 50 yards. I found Pte. Cosgrove lying on his face on the road quite unconscious with blood flowing from his nose and from a cut on his forehead. He appeared to be very badly injured. He was lying close to his bicycle, and in fact, one of his feet was resting on the rear wheel.

I removed him to the side of the road, got on my wheel, went back to Archiestown, and immediately reported the matter to the police station there. I was informed that the policeman was not at home, but that Miss McKay, a nurse, lived in the village. From the police station I went to the hotel, and was directed to Nurse McKay's residence. At this time she was not at home. Mrs. Kinlock, the proprietress of the hotel then went with me to Mr. Watson's, the liveryman, and I advised him as to what had happened and requested him to drive Pte. Cosgrove back to camp. By the time his rig was ready Nurse McKay had arrived and she came along with Mr. Watson. I cycled on ahead of Mr. Watson and found on returning to Cosgrove a rig there and a man kneeling over him. I explained to him what had happened and told him that help was coming from Archiestown, so he proceeded on his way. Mr. Watson arrived very soon and he, Miss McKay, and I placed Cosgrove in the rig in which he was driven to the camp hospital. I followed the rig for a short distance and then went on ahead and reported the matter to the medical Sergeant at the camp. He prepared a bed and as soon as Cosgrove arrived, he was placed on the bed. I then at once reported the matter to Major Blackadar of this Company who took the matter in charge. From the time of the accident until Pte. Cosgrove was placed in Mr. Watson's rig, I should judge at least three quarters of an hour had elapsed.

R.S. Deane A/Cpl.,

Dr. John W. Logie states as follows:-

I was called to see Pte. Jas. Alexander Cosgrove on the 23rd November at 1.30 A.M. I found him comatose. His face was contused and his eye-lids suffused with blood, and quite blue, each forming a haematoma. He had also a scalp wound down to bone over left pariato-frontal region where skull appears to be fissured on palpation. There was much swelling over frontal region. His selerotics were ecchymotic. He seemed to me to be suffering from fracture of skull with laceration of brain.

John W. Logie Dr.

2970, Sgt. Matson, S.J. (C.A.M.C.) states as follows:-

At eleven o'clock on Friday night November 22nd, 1918 I was notified by Cpl. Deane that Pte. Cosgrove had met with an accident by falling off his wheel, and that he was on his way to the camp hospital. He arrived here in a carriage with a nurse and a driver at about 11.15 P.M. He was in an unconscious condition when I received him. He had a bad gash on the left side of the forehead and was covered with blood. I rendered him first aid and then sent for the O.C. who sent for the Doctor at Rothes. The Dr. arrived in about an hour and put a couple of stitches in the wound and advised that Cosgrove be sent to the First Scot. General Hospital at Aberdeen on the first train in the morning, which was done.

S.J. Matson. Sgt. C.A.M.C.

Major. Geo. D. Blackadar states as follows:-

On Friday, the 22/11/18 about 11.00 P.M. 2188593, A/Cpl. Deane, R.S. informed me that the Officers' Mess that he had just had Pte. Cosgrove, J.A. brought to the camp unconscious as the result of a fall from his bicycle when returning from Archiestown. I saw Pte. Cosgrove's condition to be serious, and at once phoned for a Doctor. Pte. Cosgrove was unconscious and bleeding from a cut about three inches long near the left temple. Restoratives were applied and the bleeding stopped. Later on his tunic was removed. No pay book or money was found on his person. I questioned Cpl. Deane carefully and, in my opinion, he was positively not under the influence of liquor. He cared for and looked after Pte. Cosgrove under difficult circumstances in a most careful and creditable manner.

Early next morning before the frost was off the ground I examined the scene of the accident very carefully. About 25 feet up the hill from where Pte. Cosgrove was found there is a round, flattish topped boulder to the left of the centre of the road. The inner edge of this boulder is about 2½ inches higher than and lies at an angle with, the road. Bicycle wheel tracks, still visible at that time, indicated that the front wheel had run against this and slewed the wheel to the right, tracks also showed some wabbling and then the fall. This contour of road-bed, and suddenly putting on the brakes would cause him naturally to take a header and land on his left side. The road-bed at this point is hollow, the gravel having been washed off, the under bed of crushed rock. The road side is devoid of all cover, there are no ditches, the road is quite level with the sides. Pte. Cosgrove is a quiet man of exemplary character in every respect. There is , in my opinion, no other evidence but that the injury received by Pte. Cosgrove was due to the accidental fall from his wheel.

On the advice of Dr. Logie of Rothes, Pte. Cosgrove was taken to the First Scottish General Hospital, Aberdeen, by first train on the morning of November 23rd.
