INSTRUCTIONS.

1. These forms are to be completed in all cases of accidental or self-inflicted injuries, involving a soldier's absence from duty, whether due to the man's own act, or that of a comrade, or to other extraneous circumstances.

2. Where several casualties occur as the result of one accident, one form is to be completed for each Officer or other rank injured, but only one set of statements from the witnesses of the accident need be attached.

3. Full statements are to be taken by an Officer from the witnesses of the accident. These statements will be signed by the witnesses making them, and by the Officer who takes them, and will be forwarded with this Form. Where it is intended to take disciplinary action, copies of these statements should be retained by the Unit for use in lieu of a summary of evidence.

4. Where it is possible to obtain it, a statement from the injured man will also be forwarded. This, however, should not be used as evidence against him in any subsequent disciplinary proceedings.

Special Instructions as to Evidence in Cases of Self-Inflicted Wounds.

5. In these cases the statements mentioned in paragraphs 2 and 3 above should bring out all material points, e.g., statements to the effect that the witness was with the accused standing on the fire step (or sitting in a dug-out); that the accused was cleaning his rifle; position of safety catch, magazine, etc., if known; muzzle of rifle on toe of foot; hand on muzzle; that accused pulled trigger; that the rifle was afterwards examined and an empty cartridge case was found in chamber; that accused was seen to be wounded; what accused said ("I have shot myself," "I did not know it was loaded," etc.).

6. A soldier is specially trained in the safe use of his rifle and revolver, and evidence of any neglect of the ordinary precautions as to their handling in such cases usually has considerable bearing on the question of negligence. In cases of wilful self-wounding the fullest possible evidence should be obtained; unless the evidence is conclusive this charge should not be used. The charge will therefore usually be laid under sec. 40 Army Act—"Conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline in wounding himself through negligently handling a rifle," and an alternative charge to this effect should be made, even if the accused is to be tried under section 18 for wilful maiming.

Stats:-
On June 28th/18 I was No 1 in charge of one of my platoon Lewis Guns. Pte Greenough J. R. took over sentry duty at 9 A.M. I gave him my revolver and belt. at this time the revolver was not loaded. My ammunition pouch containing eleven rounds was with my equipment. I did not give it to Pte Greenough. At 1 P.M. he returned the revolver and belt to me and went around the corner of the traverse. I took the revolver from the holster "thinking it still unloaded" and pressed the trigger. The revolver fired. At this moment Pte Greenough came around the corner of the traverse. The bullet struck Pte Greenough in the head.

4th. Witness.

No.877777, Pte. McKenzie, J., 25th.Cdn.Inf.Battalion, States;-

On the morning of the 28th. day of June, 1918, about 9.00.a.m. I was releived from sentry duty by Pte. Greenough. After the relief Pte. Greenough asked me to loan him my revolver. I handed the revolver to him. The revolver was not loaded when I gave it to him. He had no ammunition to my knowledge. I then went to my funk-hole and went to sleep.

About 12.55.p.m. I was standing in the trench, when Pte. Greenough came and handed the revolver to me. He did not say that it was loaded. After handing me the revolver, Pte. Greenough went around back of the traverse in the trench.

While cleaning the revolver I pointed it upward, and pressed the trigger, exploding a cartridge. Pte. Greenough then fell into the trench. I looked at him and saw that the bullet had hit him in the head. I then ran after the stretcher-bearer, who came and bandaged the wound. I then reported the accident to my Platoon Sergeant.

When I went to sleep, about 9.00.a.m., I had seven rounds of revolver ammunition in the pouch of my equipment. After the accident I examined the pouch and found that only one round remained in it. I did not give Pte. Greenough any ammunition.

Question by Member of Court.

(Q) "What did you do with the revolver when you went for the Stretcher-Bearer?"
(A) "I dropped it in the bottom of the trench."
