If married and if Separation Allowance card submitted.

I have carefully examined this statement of account and find it to be a correct extract from the Paylist of this Unit.

Capt.
Paymaster, No.1 District Depot.

Headquarters, Military District #1.
London, Ont., 1918.

To-

The marginally noted man is applying for an extension of his Farm Furlough. Attached please find copy of letter concerning his case.

I have written him stating that the proper method is to apply to you for an extension of this Leave, but that there is very little likelihood of his receiving same, unless his case comes under the heading of "very severe hardship"; when his best method would be to report and fyle claim under Routine Order 589, as a case of severe hardship.

Major,
M.S.A. District Officer; M.D. No.1.
