PARIS.

An incorporated town, beautifully situated on the Governor's road, in the townships of Brantford and South Dumfries—is the second place in population and importance in the county. It is divided into the upper and lower town, separated by Smith's Creek, which here enters the Grand River. This town was laid out in 1831, by Hiram Capron, Esq., and surveyed by Lewis Burwell, Esq., P. L. S., when lots sold for $10. In 1850 it contained a population of about 1,000, and was incorporated as a village. In 1855 it was incorporated as a town. Paris was so named by Hiram Capron, Esq., from its contiguity to beds of gypsum, or plaster of Paris. The first plaster mill was built in 1823, by William Holmes, Esq. The post office was established in 1831. The first hotel was built in 1831, by John Vanevery. Hiram Capron, Esq., built the first grist-mill in 1832. There is one school—grammar and common—situated in Queen's ward, Paris and Dundas road, built in 1857, at a cost of $14,200. There are four teachers—J. W. Acres, Principal. The Great Western Railway passes along the northern end of the town. The Buffalo and Goderich section of the Grand Trunk Railway also passes through it. Mails received daily. Paris is situated in the centre of one of the most fertile regions in Ontario.

The Paris Star was established in June, 1850, by B. C. Hearle, Esq. From that time up to 1855 it passed through several hands, and was then carried on by Messrs. Oliver & Powell. The former ceased to have connection with it in 1857, and the latter became sole proprietor in 1859. Politics, Reform.

The Paris Town Hall was built of brick, in 1853—cost about $12,000. Architect, John Maxwell. Situated in Queen's Ward, Upper Town—surrounded by Dumfries, Church, and Burwell streets.

There are several manufactories now carried on successfully in Paris, of which mention may be made of the new Paris mill, C. Whitlaw proprietor. This mill is 180 feet long by 45 wide, two stories high, containing 6 run of stone propelled by water, and employment is given to a large number of hands, about 2,000 barrels of flour are turned out per week.

The old Paris mill, Geo. T. Florey proprietor, is four stories high, of frame, with stone basement 60 by 30 feet, and contains 4 run of stone propelled by water. About 150 barrels of flour are manufactured daily.

There is a custom grist mill on the flats—carried on by Alexander Henderson. The building is brick, three stories high, and 40 by 25 feet. The mill contains two run of stone, propelled by water power.

In the manufacture of plaster, J. W. Coleman employs about eighty hands, and turns out about ten thousand tons per annum. The works have been established over twenty years. The premises are built of brick, and the machinery propelled by water power.

Thomas Mclean, 6 Colborne and 3 Market Streets, Brantford, is the place for Carpets.

STEWART & MATHISON.

COUNTY OF BRANT.

The manufacture of tobacco is here carried on extensively by Messrs. Brown, Dickson & Co., who employ from twenty to thirty hands in the manufacture of plug tobacco. The factory is two stories high, and 40 by 60 feet. It is situated on Dumfries Street.

Cooperage.—Whitlaw's cooperage, under the management of Mr. D. Finlayson, is a large frame building, 80 feet long, by 26 feet wide. Fourteen hands are here employed, and about 50,000 barrels turned out annually.

The Paris Foundry and Machine Shop is carried on by Messrs. Maxwell & Whitlaw. The buildings are frame, being 30 feet wide and 200 feet long, and for 120 feet in length are two stories high. Water power is used to propel the machinery, and about twenty hands find constant employment. Agricultural implements, mill gearing, and every description of castings are here turned out.

Sewing Machines.—In the manufacture of this now useful and indispensable machine to every family, the "British American Manufacturing Sewing Machine Co.," established in 1866, are extensively engaged. They now turn out about 500 machines annually; employ 18 hands, and use hydraulic power. The premises are 80 feet long by 30, and three stories high. The works were originally established by Mr. Barclay. The Company claims a greater simplicity in the structure of their machine, and considers the machine superior to any other manufacture. Messrs. Hall, Laing and Totten, Directors; D. Totten, President; James Laing, Secretary.

Leather Manufacturing.—Messrs. H. Finlayson & Co. are engaged in the manufacture of leather of various kinds. They employ five hands. The business was originally established in 1832 by Mr. Macklin.

Pork Packing.—Messrs. J. M. Whitlaw & Co. have been doing business as pork packers and curers for a number of years. A number of hands are kept employed during the packing season.

Fanning Mills.—In this branch of manufactures, Mr. J. E. Mitchell has been established about thirty years. Water power is used, and a number of men employed. The premises are frame.

Knitting Works.—The Paris Knitting and Manufacturing Co., Messrs. Penman & Adams, use hydraulic power to the extent of forty horse, and employ one hundred hands. The building is rough-cast, 84 feet by 50 feet, and four stories high. The factory contains three sets of manufacturing machines, and 680 spindles. There is also a steam boiler for dyeing and heating purposes, &c. All kinds of woolen goods are here turned out, to the extent of about $70,000 per annum.

Planing Mills.—Mr. George Angus, in this branch of industry employs fifteen hands—water power is employed to propel the machinery. The building is rough-cast, two-stories high, and 66 by 36 feet. Messrs. Turnbull & Thompson, in the same line, employ nine hands, using hydraulic power also. Their building is frame, two stories high, and 70 by 30 feet. Each of the above firms manufactures sash, doors, blinds, mouldings, and engage in building.

Potters.—Messrs. Schuler & McGlade, employ six hands in this business, which has been established about 11 years—at first by Mr. Marlatt. The firm is doing a large trade, and manufacture every description of earthen, flint, and enameled ware.

Ahren's pottery was established about 1848—six hands are here employed, and goods to the value of about six thousand dollars turned out per annum, consisting of flint, enameled and common earthenware.

CHURCHES.

St. James' Church.—The Church of England is a substantial stone edifice, a transept in the Gothic style of cut stone was added to the Church in 1865 by the present incumbent, the Rev. Dr. Townley. The cost of the Church has been about £500 stg. It will accommodate three hundred persons. There is a large and prosperous Sunday school in connexion.

Church of the Sacred Heart.—The Catholic Church, dedicated to "the Sacred Heart of Jesus," was opened for divine service in the year 1857; but in consequence of a heavy debt contracted at the time, the building has remained for several years in an unfinished state. It is a substantial solid stone edifice, 70 x 45 feet, capable of accommodating 400 persons, and is constructed in the mediæval style of architecture, of rustic exterior appearance, embellished by ornamental cut stone bordering the doors and Gothic windows. The outside walls are low, as it was intended that the inner ones should be elevated so as to admit of a clear story, lighted from above; but this part of the plan, for want of funds, has been for the present omitted. The chief beauty of the church is displayed in the interior, which is remarkable for its two rows of massive stone pillars, with ornamental capitals, supporting on either side three gothic arches, besides the grand arch in the centre leading into the sanctuary. The ceiling is of polished wood intended to be painted, and the windows which are for the most part temporary ones, are to be all enriched with stained glass. Preparations are already being made to carry these improvements into effect. When the present clergyman assumed charge—some four years ago—the church was not only deeply in debt, but the building itself, through neglect, was very much dilapidated. Since that time, aided by the generosity of such gentlemen as D. O'Neil & Sons, (who themselves subscribed one thousand dollars) James Maxwell, Esq., the Messrs. Skelley, T. McGrory, and others who also subscribed most liberally, the reverend gentleman has succeeded not only in liquidating the greater portion of the debt, but also in effecting many desirable repairs and improvements. "The Ladies' Altar Society," recently established, is contributing handsomely to the interior decoration. They have already procured, among the ornaments, 14 lithographic paintings of "the Stations of the Cross," representing scenes in the life of our Redeemer, and the first stained glass window is marked as the gift of the same society. The cabinet organ lately presented to the church is the gift of the Messrs. Maginn, of Burford. Rev. Father Dowling is the resident priest. He is also in charge of a congregation in Galt, so that he officiates in Paris church only every alternate Sunday, on which days high mass is celebrated at 10:30 a.m. Sunday school is held at 2:30 p.m., and vespers at 3:30 p.m.

Separate School.—The Catholic separate school is taught in the building formerly used as a church. The school is conducted by the Sisters of St. Joseph. The average attendance of pupils is between sixty and seventy.

Canada Presbyterian Church.—This church is situated on Dumfries street. The church is large and will seat comfortably 650 persons. This is one of the oldest congregations in the town, and was originally organized in 1836 by the Rev. G. Murray. The congregation now numbers two hundred and seventy members under the pastoral charge of the Rev. John James.

The Congregational Church building is situated on Congregational Square, fronting the south. It is a substantial but unpretending brick building, capable of seating three hundred, with a lecture room behind. It is plain and comfortable in the interior, heated from beneath with hot air apparatus. A small but sweet toned organ is in the gallery, and the lecture room is well hung around with missionary maps. The church is prosperous, though not numerous, is influential and gradually increasing. They own a beautiful and commodious parsonage, situated on the same square. The present pastor, Rev. W. H. Allworth, was settled over them in 1865, successor of Rev. E. Ebbs, of Ottawa city. This church in proportion to its numbers is liberal, and not without reason is full of hope for the future.

Wesleyan Methodist Church was erected in the year 1846, and is 65 x 38 feet, framed, rough cast, original cost $3,000, will seat 500 persons. Present congregation, or congregation now in attendance, 450 persons. The following ministers have officiated in this church:—From 1850 to 1853, Rev. Edwin Clement; from 1853 to 1855, Rev. Joseph Shepley; from 1855 to 1858, Revs. O. H. Ellsworth and Thos. Jeffery; from 1858 to 1860, Revs. Peter Kerr and Wm. Hay; from 1860 to 1863, Revs. W. S. Griffin, Richard Potter, Wm. Hayhurst, and H. Bartlet; 1863, Revs. James Spencer, Samuel Hume, and Thomas Kelly; from 1864 to 1867, Revs. John G. Laird, G. H. Bridgeman, and G. Burson; from 1867 to 1869, Revs. John Mills and John F. German, M.A.

Primitive Methodist Church was built in 1862. It is a frame, rough cast building, 42 by 32 feet, seated for two hundred persons, and cost about one thousand dollars. Its membership is about forty, and is gradually on the increase. The Rev. A. Hepworth is the present officiating minister.

Paris Baptist Church.—The Baptist Church in this town was formed in the year 1843. In the course of the preceding year a chapel was erected, which is now used as a Sunday School and Lecture Room. In 1864, a neat and commodious brick chapel was built on an eminence overlooking the lower town, and near the site of the former place of worship. With the opening of the new church edifice the pastorate of the present minister, the Rev. Thomas Henderson, commenced.

Baptist Church Edifice Society for the Province of Ontario.—President, Alexander Mackenzie, Esq., M.P.; Treasurer, William Buck, Esq., Brantford; Secretary, Rev. Thomas Henderson, Paris. Subscriptions:—Life Director, $200; Life Member, $25; Annual, $1.

BISHOP'S GATE,

A small village in the township of Burford, situated on the Hamilton and London Macadamized road, eight miles from Brantford and seventeen from Woodstock. It contains one good hotel, kept by Mr. Joseph Gillespie. Mr. J. Bingham's foundry and agricultural works were established in 1845, his buildings are frame, 40 x 50 feet, three stories high, with extensive wings for moulding and blacksmith shops; ten to twelve men are employed, with an engine of 12 horse power, and $7,000 worth of reapers, mowers, drills, stumping machines, ploughs, harrows, cultivators, and other agricultural implements, are turned out annually. Mails daily. Population, 80.

BURFORD VILLAGE, (CLAREMONT,)

A post village in the township of Burford, on the Hamilton and London gravel road, distant from Woodstock 16 miles, and 9 from Brantford, the County Town. It contains 4 churches. The Episcopalian, a neat brick building, erected in 1855, at a cost of $1,800, and is seated to accommodate 300, Rev. James Padfield, incumbent. The Wesleyan Methodist is a good frame building, erected at a cost of $1,000. The Baptist Church congregation is under the pastoral charge of the Rev. J. Vining. This church was erected in 1866, of frame, at a cost of $800. The Congregational Church, at Burford Village, was organized by the Rev. James Nall, in 1835. A place of worship was then built which has been improved at different times since, and with burying ground attached is valued at $3,000. Mr. Nall was succeeded in the pastorate by the

Thomas McLean, 6 Colborne and 3 Market Streets, Brantford, is the place for Carpets.

Rev. W. F. Clarke, who was ordained over the church in 1844, and continued his ministry until 1846. Upon his removal the vacancy was supplied by the Rev. W. H. Allworth for about nine months. The next pastor was the Rev. James Vincent, who continued his labors among them for 8 years. Upon his removal to the United States, the Rev. William Hay, of Scotland, was elected minister, and entered upon his duties in August 1856. Several revivals have been enjoyed by this church, one in 1857, in which some sixty souls were added to the membership. The Rev. Wm. Hay resigned in 1868, and was succeeded by the Rev. John Brown, who is now in charge. Samuel Gammage, Lawrence Daniels, Aaron McWilliams, Henry Cox, John Keachie, and David Maune are deacons.

The schools are of brick and frame, divided into two departments, where 150 pupils are educated under the charge of Mr. John Linton, 1st Class teacher, and principal of Burford Public Schools, assisted by Miss B. Green.

There is also a Masonic Lodge in this place. (See page 79.)

L. O. L., No. 362—Meets on the first Tuesday of each month, Jacob Carter, W. M.

The Nightingale Division, No. 81, Sons of Temperance meets every Monday evening, Jacob Sherwood, W. C. T.

The mercantile department is well represented by Mr. Ira L. Day and Mr. Henry Cox, who are doing a large business in dry goods, groceries, crockery, ready-made clothing, boots, shoes and medicines. Among the mechanical trades we notice the large cabinet shop of Messrs. James and Wm. Hearne, established in 1850, where all kinds of cabinet ware and upholstery work may be had.

Two hotels—the "Albion," kept by Mr. Wm. Briers, where commercial travellers and the public will be well accommodated.

A good hall and a drill shed. Mails daily. Population 40.

ROSEBANK,

A post office in the Township of Brantford, on the Governor's Road, about 7 miles from the county town. It is also known as Shipman's Corners.

ST. GEORGE,

A post village in the Township of South Dumfries, situated about a mile north of the line of the Great Western Railway, the nearest station being Harrisburg. It is distant 8 miles from Brantford, the same distance from Galt and Paris. There is considerable business done at St. George, situated as it is in a fine agricultural section of the country. It contains three churches, viz. :—The Canada Presbyterian, the Wesleyan Methodist and Baptist. The Canada Presbyterian Church formerly belonged to the United Presbyterian Church before the union of the two churches in Canada.

In the year 1832, the Antiburgher Synod of Scotland sent missionaries to Canada. Two of these missionaries visited a number of families in the vicinity of St. George, and were kindly received. Arrangements were entered into for holding public worship in a school house or barn, as might suit the purpose. The Rev. Thomas Christie, now of Flamboro, took charge of this station, and supplied ordinances as often as a due regard for the welfare of other stations under his charge would permit. A church was built in 1834, and the cause made good progress until near the end of the year 1838, when a call was given to the Rev. James Roy. The said call was accepted, and Mr. Roy was inducted into the pastoral charge of the congregation in December, 1838. The congregation previously gave a call to Rev. Thomas Christie, now of Flamboro, but he did not accept. Mr. Roy labored with great diligence and acceptance for several years, preaching in St. George and Glen Morris, until he was suddenly removed by death, in the month of May, in the year 1852. The congregation, after the death of Mr. Roy, still kept united, and for several years they did not enjoy the services of a stated ministry. The congregation gave several calls but did not succeed. The church was unanimous in giving a call to Mr. Robert Hume, preacher of the gospel. He accepted the call, and was ordained and inducted into the pastoral charge of the congregation on the 22nd of May, 1860. Mr. Hume has labored since that time with acceptance. The congregation has increased under his ministry. He is at the present time the pastor of the church. In the year 1861 the congregation resolved to build a new church as the old church was too small to accommodate all, and hence the necessity of building. Mr. William Watts, contractor, of Brantford, was engaged to build the new church. The work was commenced vigorously, and during the summer of 1861, the new church was erected. The opening dedication services were conducted by the Rev. Dr. Ormiston, of Hamilton, and Dr. John Thompson, formerly of Galt, (now of New York) on the 17th of November, 1861.

The new church is of Doric style of architecture, capable of accommodating, in public worship, about 300 persons. It is situated on a beautiful and elevated plot of ground, near the site of the old church. The building is neat and substantial, and is regarded as one of the best country churches in the county of Brant.

The Regular Baptist Church was organized March 30, 1824, under the ministration of Rev. Simon Mabee. The original membership was eleven in number. Elder Mabee remained pastor of the church till 1828. After this the following, in the order of their succession, ministered to the church:—Rev. Reuben Crandel till Nov. 27th, 1835; Elder Elliott till March 16th, 1839; Elder Bailey till March 13th, 1841; Elder Smith till March 26th, 1852; Elder E. Clark till May 12th, 1855; Elder Wm. Smith till Dec., 1859; Thos. L. Davidson, D.D., till Feb. 11th, 1866; Elder Joel Reddick till Aug. 31st, 1867. Present pastor of the church, G. A. Dougharty, M.A. Present number of members 152. The church worships in a neat stone meeting house in the village of St. George. The main building is 40 feet by 60. The vestry room is 24 feet by 30. The church clerk is Benjamin Bell, of St. George.

The Wesleyan Methodist Church is a plain unpretending frame building. The congregation is under the pastoral charge of the Rev. James Harris.

The village contains some important and extensive manufacturing establishments. Mr. Benjamin Bell's works were established in 1854. He employs from thirty to forty hands, and an engine of ten horse power. The premises are frame, two stories high, and 110 by 50 feet, the moulding shop being 60 by 40 feet. Reapers, mowers, ploughs, cultivators, drag saws, and all kinds of agricultural implements are turned out by Mr. Bell to the value of $30,000 annually.

Mr. Wm. Snowball is engaged in the manufacture of wagons on a large scale, employing from twelve to fifteen hands. This branch of his business has been established since 1834. The premises are frame on stone basement, 80 feet by 80, and two stories high. A steam engine of six horse power is used in this establishment. About 100 wagons are turned out annually. Mr. Snowball is engaged as well in the manufacture of flour and flax. The flouring mill contains three run of stone, and is a frame building with stone basement. A new mill, to be built entirely of stone, is shortly to take the place of the old one three stories high, and 60 by 30 feet. The flax mill was established by Mr. Snowball in 1863. It is a frame building, two stories high, 40 by 40 feet. From twenty to fifty hands are employed in this branch of industry.

SCOTLAND,

A post village situated on the town line of Burford and Oakland. The stage road leading from Paris to Simcoe, passes through the village. It is 14 miles from Paris, and 11 from Brantford. It contains two churches, Baptist and Congregational. The Congregational Church was formed in 1835, and was associated with the church of the same order at Burford, under the ministry of the Rev. James Nall, who came to this country from England, under the direction of the Colonial Missionary Society. Towards the close of the year 1843, he removed to another part of the vineyard of the Lord. After some months of spiritual destitution, the Rev. W. F. Clarke, was installed pastor, October 16th, 1844, and in the spring of 1846, tendered his resignation with a view to leaving the Province. The Rev. W. H. Allworth, visited them in August, 1846, and labored among them as temporary supply during the following winter. On the 7th August, 1847, the church invited Mr. William Hay, a graduate of the Congregational College, to accept the pastoral oversight of them, and he entered upon his ministerial duties on the 13th October, and was ordained pastor on the 19th January, 1848. At this date there was no church building and the members numbered 30, and were in the habit of assembling for worship in a school house. The church edifice was opened for divine service in 1849.

Thomas McLean invites special attention to his Large Stock of Ready Made Clothing, Market and Colborne Streets, Brantford.

Thomas McLean, Importer of General Dry Goods, Wholesale and Retail, Colborne and Market Streets, Brantford.

Since then 170 members have been added to the roll. In the spring of 1868, the Rev. W. Hay, on account of poor health resigned the pastorate, but has been recalled thereto, and is now in the position which he has sustained for more than 20 years.

Dr. J. R. Malcolm's grist mill contains two run of stone and is built of frame, three stories high, and 30 by 50 feet.

Mr. Robert Gillespie is engaged in the manufacture of leather, harness, kip, and calf leathers are chiefly turned out here; the tannery is of frame, two stories high, and 24 by 50 feet.

There are 4 stores and a post office, 3 wagon and blacksmith shops, 3 coopers' shops, 1 cabinet and tin shop, a good woolen factory 30 by 36 feet, two stories, where Mr. Malcolm employs six hands in carding, cloth dressing and manufacturing custom work generally, working all seasons of the year.

A united grammar and common school, where 120 pupils are in training. 2 good hotels, the "Scotland House Hotel," kept by Mr. P. J. Pilkey, is in first class style for the accommodation of commercial travelers and the public generally. There is in connection with the hotel a livery stable. The Commercial Hotel, kept by Mr. Jonathan Thatcher, is worthy of like patronage. Mails daily. Population 150.

AYR,

Is an important post village, situate in the Township of North Dumfries, County of Waterloo, about one mile from the Brant County line. It is distant from Paris 7 miles, from Galt 10 miles, and from Berlin 14 miles. The Cedar and Smith's Creeks run through the village and afford much hydraulic power. The post office was established in 1838, the present official is Robert Wyllie, Esq.

There are three churches, viz: Knox's Church, (Canada Presbyterian), a handsome frame building erected in 1844, at a cost of $1,500, Rev. D. McRuar, pastor; the W. M. Church cost $1,200, Rev. Mr. Gamain; the Stanley Street Church, (Presbyterian) cost over $2,000; the Presbyterians (Morrisonians) have a congregation here, Rev. James Howie, minister. The common school buildings are of brick, erected in 1854, cost $3,000, and have the capacity to accommodate over 300 pupils.

The Ayr Herald is a well conducted family newspaper, having a large circulation in the Counties of Waterloo, Oxford, and Brant. It was established in 1867, by Mr. James G. Watson, in the Reform interest, and is rapidly increasing in circulation. There is a good book and job office in connection.

There is a Masonic Lodge in Ayr—Lodge No. 172, G. R. C.; a Mechanics' Institute with a library of over 1,200 volumes, Alexander Petrie, president; one fire company, John Wyllie, captain; a Vol. Infantry Company, 29th Bat., Waterloo, is in a most effective state, being just re-enrolled under the new Act, Thomas M. Anderson, captain, Jas. G. Watson, lieutenant, J. McKay Anderson, ensign; a Temperance Society, Thomas Easton, president; a Young Men's Christian Association meets weekly for mutual edification and dispatch of business, Dr. W. R. Pentland, president; a Literary Society which meets weekly for debates, readings, recitations, &c., Dr. G. W. Bingham, president.

This village contains several important and extensive manufactures, foremost among which the agricultural works of John Watson, Esq., may be mentioned. This large establishment was started in 1848. Mr. Watson's shops cover an area of two acres, and are built of stone, brick and wood. Steam and water power are both used in propelling the machinery, and from sixty-five to seventy hands are constantly employed. Reaping, mowing, threshing machines, drills, straw and root cutters, ploughs, and in fact every description of agricultural implement that the most extensive farmer requires as a labor saving machine are here manufactured. About 600 reapers and 50 separators are annually made at these works.

This is one of the most successful establishments in Canada, and its success is only the just reward due to the business energy and integrity of character displayed by its well known proprietor.

James Piper, Esq., is very extensively engaged in the manufacture of flour. The Nithvale mills and Jedburgh mills are carried on by him. In the Nithvale mills about fifteen thousand barrels of flour are put up annually. There is an oatmeal mill as well with two run of stone, manufacturing merchant meal only. He has also a saw mill, doing custom work only. In and about the several mills about twenty hands are employed. In addition to the mills already mentioned, Mr. Piper has erected the Jedburgh woolen and cotton factory. The building is brick, three stories high, and 50 by 60 feet. A great many operatives will be here employed when fully in operation, and this latter enterprise must add largely to the progress of the village.

Mr. David Goldie, proprietor of the Greenfield flouring mills, is doing a very heavy business, and has in connection with the mill a stave factory and cooorage. A large number of hands find employment in all the establishments.

Mr. Peter Cunningham is carrying on the brewing of beer and ale. The brewery is 30 by 50 feet, and two stories high.

In the manufacture of shoe pegs Mr. James Gladstone has been engaged for a number of years. Five or six hands are employed, and water power used to propel the machinery. From ten to twelve bushels of shoe pegs are turned out daily.

Pump Manufacturing.—In this branch of industry Mr. Robert Knox employs a few hands.

Carriage Making.—Mr. John Bell employs five or six hands in the manufacture of carriages, buggies, sleighs, cutters, &c.

Thomas McLean is noted for selling Cheap Dry Goods, Colborne and Market Streets, Brantford.
