Niagara Falls; Canada.

Hewson & Co's Dry Goods and Clothing Store is marked thus:— +

HEWSON & CO'S.,

DRY GOODS

AND

CLOTHING HOUSE,

Niagara Falls, Canada,

Is the recognized trading place of many of Welland's and Lincoln's prosperous farmers.

Those who wish to buy for cash, and at the very best prices cash can command, are daily proving that Hewson & Co. have taken the right way to build up a permanent and prosperous business in this coming border city of Canada. The large market and splendid prices realized here for produce places the farmers and fruit growers of this neighborhood in a position to buy for cash; and the rapid strides Messrs. Hewson & Co.'s sales are making in an upward direction proves the wisdom of this store's planting.

The policy of the store is,—

Not to be Undersold by any Competitor,

And although this entails a positive loss to the store in a few lines of American goods—notably Leno's and Prints—it is carried out to the letter, and such goods are now handled here at the same prices as in Buffalo and Rochester; while customers from

EVERY STATE IN THE UNION

have stated, "All the imported Dress Goods, and Ready-Made Clothing for Men and Boys are far below the same goods at their own homes."

When in Niagara Falls for the day do not fail to visit this store it will leave a pleasant place in your memory.

GARDEN CITY TEMPLE OF MUSIC.

Working Under the Charter of the St. Catharines College of Commerce Co., (Ltd.)

OFFICERS:

S. W. RUSE JAMES BAXTER, OLIVER AUSTIN, W. H. ANGER	Mus. D., (President and Director of University of Music.)	Musical Director. Director of Baxter Examiner. President. Secretary.
--	---	--

LECTURERS:

J. A. GRIFFIN, B. A., (Science Master St. Catharines Coll. Inst.)
 K. GOODMAN, M. B., (Mayor of St. Catharines.)
 DR. JAS. BAXTER.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS:

OLIVER AUSTIN, W. H. ANGER, H. A. ANGER, J. F. BEAM,
 W. TAYLOR HOUSE.

The Temple of Music's fundamental idea is, that music is proportionately valuable as its use and understanding is made available to the whole people. It therefore provides that, while under the old forms of instruction the learner "takes a lesson" about twice a week in one subject at a cost beyond the reach of the general public, under this new system he receives daily instruction in not less than three different branches, and lives in a constant round of musical doings, of thought, exercise and association, seven or eight hours each day, by which means the whole subject becomes familiar like common speech, and a full, intelligent and satisfactory education is secured at an expense little or no greater than is usual in learning to merely play an instrument.
