THE TORONTO NEWS,

LARGEST CIRCULATION IN ONTARIO

Publication Office, 106 Yonge St.
EDMUND E. SHEPPARD, - PROP.

The Toronto Morning News is the spiciest daily newspaper in Canada. Subscription price, $4.00 per annum, or $1 for 3 months.
The Evening News is the city paper of Toronto. Subscription price, $3 per annum.

The combined circulation of the morning and evening papers exceeds that of any other paper in Ontario, with but one exception.

As an advertising medium the News is without a peer in the Province.

Politically the News is independent. Its policy is founded on the principle of government of the people, for the people, by the people." It advocates:

National independence.

The election of a chief magistrate for Canada by and from amongst Canadians.

An elective Senate.

The abolition of all exemptions from taxation.

The complete separation of Church and state.

Manhood suffrage in all parliamentary affairs.

A revision of the constitution, so as to define more strictly the respective powers of the National and Provincial Governments.

The abolition of the veto power now possessed by the Federal authorities over Provincial legislation; all questions as to the constitutionality of National and provincial acts to be decided by the Supreme Court.

All paper money to be issued by the National Government instead of by the banks.

The abolition of all official superannuation funds.

Such changes in the laws as will made the existence of a permanent office holding class impossible.

The reorganization of our provincial systems on a more economical and Democratic basis.

The election of provincial governors, etc., by the people.

The election of County officers, such as sheriffs, registrars, clerks of the court, division court clerks, inspectors of schools, etc., by the people.

The election by the teachers of the province of a council and chief superintendent of public instruction.
