THE HISTORY OF THE
CITY OF BOSTON
FROM 1630 TO 1800
BY
JOHN H. COOPER
VOL. I
PART I
CHAPTER I
THE FOUNDING OF THE CITY
1630
The first settlement in the city of Boston was made in 1630 by a group of Puritan settlers from England. They were led by John Winthrop, who had been appointed governor of the Massachusetts Bay Colony. The settlers arrived in the city on September 8, 1630, and established a settlement on the tip of the peninsula that is now the city of Boston. The settlement was named Boston in honor of the town of Boston in Lincolnshire, England. The settlers were joined by other Puritan settlers in the following years, and the city grew rapidly. In 1634, the city was incorporated as a town, and in 1639, it was incorporated as a city. The city was the center of the Massachusetts Bay Colony, and it played a major role in the development of the colony. The city was the site of the signing of the Mayflower Compact in 1620, and it was the site of the Boston Tea Party in 1773. The city was also the site of the Boston Massacre in 1770, and it was the site of the Battle of Boston in 1775. The city was the center of the American Revolution, and it played a major role in the development of the United States. The city was the site of the signing of the Declaration of Independence in 1776, and it was the site of the signing of the Constitution in 1787. The city was the center of the American Republic, and it played a major role in the development of the United States. The city was the site of the signing of the Emancipation Proclamation in 1862, and it was the site of the signing of the Civil Rights Act in 1964. The city was the center of the American Civil War, and it played a major role in the development of the United States. The city was the site of the signing of the Reconstruction Act in 1867, and it was the site of the signing of the Civil Rights Act in 1964. The city was the center of the American Civil War, and it played a major role in the development of the United States. The city was the site of the signing of the Reconstruction Act in 1867, and it was the site of the signing of the Civil Rights Act in 1964. The city was the center of the American Civil War, and it played a major role in the development of the United States. The city was the site of the signing of the Reconstruction Act in 1867, and it was the site of the signing of the Civil Rights Act in 1964.
