JAS. HOUGH, JR.,
THE ARTISTIC PRINTER,

GUELPH, ONT.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

From the Inland Printer, Chicago, Sept., 1885.

The undersigned, after a careful examination of the specimens forwarded to, and published in the Inland Printer, for competition for the prizes offered during the months of April, May, June, July and August, award to F. Russell, of New York, the first premium; to A. R. Allexon, of Chicago, the second premium; to Geo. A. Moore, of Beverly, Mass., the third premium, and to Jas. Hough, Jr., of Guelph, Ont., the fourth premium.

M. F. DOUGHERTY,

A. H. McLAUGHLIN,
 with Poole Brothers.

B. F. PHILBRICK, with Shepard & Johnston.

Hamilton Spectator, January 29, 1887.

James Hough, Jr., has opened an artistic printing office on Wyndham street, Guelph, where he has the latest styles of type and best machinery. Mr. Hough was awarded fourth premium in the Inland Printer competition at Chicago, in a field of 23 of the best American printers, and he was one of the three Canadians appointed to send specimens to the American Printers' Specimen Exchange at Buffalo. Mr. Hough ought to succeed in his venture, and if the Guelph people appreciate good printing he will.

Philadelphia Typographic Advertiser, Springtime, 1885.

In addition to other samples we have received a specimen, which is worthy of special mention, by Jas. Hough, Jr., Guelph, Canada.

Acton Free Press, January 27, 1887.

Mr. Jas. Hough, Jr., late foreman of the Herald job department, has opened a job printing office in Guelph, with as large and fine an assortment of type, presses, &c., as any office could desire. Everything in the office is new and of the latest styles and patterns. Mr. Hough has earned for himself a reputation for artistic job printing. He was awarded a highly creditable prize in the international competition arranged by the Inland Printer of Chicago. We feel satisfied that the work executed by the "Art" printing office will be in every way pleasing and satisfactory to the long list of customers it is sure to be favored with.

GRIP OFFICE, TORONTO, Aug. 7, 1886.

DEAR SIR,—I have received sample copy of certificate, for which I thank you. I am much pleased with the job. In the assortment and display of type, and the arrangement of colors, as well as the taste displayed in the general make up of the form, I consider it first-class work. The whole effect is very excellent, and I congratulate you on the job.

Yours truly,

H. HOUGH,
 Manager Grip Pub. Dept.
